Letter No. E.C. 1005, dated the 13th June 1912, from the Postmaster General, Madras Circle, to the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

I have the honour to say that on account of the poor income of the office and the difficulty in obtaining a suitable agent on the sanctioned allowance it has been decided to close the Maralavadi Branch Post Office under the Bangalore Head Post Office in the Mysore State. I request that you will be so good as to let me know whether the Hon'ble the Resident has any objection to the office being closed.

2. After the closure of the office the village will be served by the village postman of the Harohalli Post Office twice a week.

Sir,

With reference to your memo No. G 6707/G.M. 69-11-78 dated 21st ultimo, requesting my views in the matter of closing the Maralvadi Branch Post Office, Kankunhally Taluk, I have the honour to submit that from local enquiries it is ascertained that the Post office in question has been a source of great convenience to the people of Maralvadi which is a pretty big village containing nearly 500 houses and that the closure

Closure of the Branch Post Office is likely to cause much inconvenience to the military pensioners who form a large portion of the population.

2. As there is a Hobli School in the Village, the branch post office may be retained, the School master's services being utiliged for the purpose.

I have the honour to be
Sir
your most obedient Servant.
